

Supervision Group

Are you feeling isolated in your practice?

Are the challenges of every day work weighing down on you?

Are you looking for greater inspiration in your interactions with your clients?

Are you interested in post-modern approaches?

Are you open to exploring an innovative and affirming group supervision process that is focused on generating multiple ideas and possibilities to address shared challenges?

If you have answered yes to any of the above questions, you are invited to join our group supervision process

Your participation will allow you to...

- Understand and experience the outsider witness reflecting team process as developed by Tom Andersen, Michael White & David Epston
- Join with other participants around common values, purposes and commitments
- Create a supportive community of practitioners
